

SLOVAK NATIONAL LIBRARY

Slovak National Library

The first place to consult when looking for information about Slovakia

Collect Slovak Intellectual Heritage to Build Our National Identity

5.5 million items to document the history and presence of Slovakia

Focus on documents written in Slovak, by Slovak authors, printed in the area of Slovakia, and/or related to Slovak culture in any meaningful way

The treasure is further developed and shared

Catalogue Documents to Make Them Easily Retrievable

National bibliographical agency

Guidelines, manuals and training for over 4 000 libraries National online catalogue accessible through SNL website

SNL has fully implemented the RDA cataloguing rules as the national standard

Help SNL Users Understand the Context

Literary Archives of the SNL encompass over 1.7 million unique holdings

Inexhaustible resource of manuscripts, diaries, and small personal items

Enables researchers to study most of these one-of-the-kind documents upon request at the specialized reading rooms

CENTRE OF CONSERVATION AND DIGITALIZATION

The Future Is Digital We Are Ready For It

The national conservation collection of the SNL is being systematically digitized

23 fully automatic, semi-automatic and professional manual scanners produce tens of thousands digitized pages every day

CMS comprising a software solution, hardware storage solutions including disk arrays, a 25 petabyte tape library, 50 blade servers, and a digitization workflow system

Collection Protection Department

Department /division of Preparation documents

Department /division of Conservation and Restoration

Research and Development

Protection and administration of Deposits

Continual improvement of our collection storage conditions

S
N K

Restoration, conservation

Research and development

S
N K

• Visegrad Fund

Preventive protection, storage

S
N K

Next positions of Slovak National Library

Enter the world of Slovak literature through the permanent exposition at the SNL's Literary Museum in Martin, Slovakia

The Slavic Museum of A. S. Pushkin in Brodzany situates Slovak contribution to European written heritage into a broader family of Slavic literature

Original historical book collection displayed in the reconstructed Apponyi's Library in Oponice

The image shows an open medieval manuscript, likely a liturgical book, resting on a wooden surface. The pages are filled with musical notation on red staves. The text is written in a Gothic script. Several large, ornate initials in blue and red ink are visible, decorated with floral and foliate patterns. A semi-transparent white banner with the text "Thank you for your attention!" is overlaid across the center of the image.

Thank you for your attention!